Breast Thermography Schedule & Pricing

Schedule

To establish a baseline, 2 scans are necessary, 3 months apart. It is recommended to repeat scans yearly for prevention and early detection. Talk to your doctor or one of the naturopathic doctors at our clinic to create your schedule related to mammography and thermography.

Depending on findings from your baseline scans, you may be asked to repeat again in another 3 months to monitor therapy if recommended. Individualized medical follow-up may be recommended and you may choose to do this with your doctor or with one of our naturopathic doctors who are trained in natural breast cancer prevention methods. This would be in addition to the included fees. The doctors at NFC are very willing to work with your doctor.
